The following are the COVID protocols for attending Feis Maitiú as of 24th January, 2022:

1. The maximum number at any event (including performers, supporters, adjudicator and staff) will be restricted to a maximum of 90 in our 300 seat auditorium.
2. Sanitizing stations will be available in the foyer, Green Room, stage, toilets and exit. The venue will be ventilated.
3. All Patrons are requested to be mindful of Social Distancing.
4. All those who are required to wear face masks, must do so.
5. Pianists and Accompanists are required to sanitise their hands both before and immediately after performance from the hand sanitiser on the Stage.
6. Each performer can be accompanied by four supporters only.
7. Performers are asked to arrive up to 10 minutes before starting time to complete check-in and to observe social distance. Performers who require costume, should arrive in costume. Changing facilities are not available.
8. Performers will sit with their supporters in the audience.
9. Performers will go directly to the stage from their seat when it is their turn; and return from the stage to their seat after the performance.
10. In classes of own choice, please bring printed paper copies of music and/or script. Do not put into plastic sheets or folders. Scripts and Music will not be returned. Please DO NOT bring original copies (for this year)
11. The usual awards will be made, but will not be physically presented by the Adjudicator.
12. In Classes with Cups or Trophies, winners can take photos with the Trophy on the stage, but cannot take the Trophy away.
13. We respectfully ask performers and supporters to leave immediately after the session, so that the Auditorium can be prepared and made ready for the next session.
14. There will be a one way system in operation, with the rule keep left.
15. Please help us have a safe and happy Feis for all involved.
16. Admission fee €4.00, concessions are available.
